

Human Resources Director $150K package

This is a career opportunity for an ambitious Director of Human Resources within a very well-regarded and established Not-For-Profit in downtown Toronto.

Much of the focus of this role will be within People & Culture, providing support to the Executive Director, and be equal parts strategy and implementation. Developing talent management strategies, working on a formal succession and workforce planning program, championing and project managing change initiatives, developing a people analytics strategy, providing leadership to HR managers are only a few of the elements of this role.

The requirements include 10+ years experience, at least 5 years in a leadership role within HR, and demonstrated project management capabilities (PMP would be an asset here). An MBA or equivalent, and a CHRP/CHRL designation are also required.

If your heart lies in not-for-profit and you want to work with a growing and forward-thinking team, this may be the opportunity for you.

This is a promotable position.
